

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

WHEREAS: as the 22nd national president of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., the nation's largest black sorority, in her career as an engineer at Johns Hopkins University's Applied Physics Laboratory, and as president of Alabama State University, Dr. Gwendolyn E. Boyd has been a prominent advocate for women's equality and for the recruitment of black Americans into science and engineering, and

WHEREAS: as a champion of education, Dr. Boyd has spearheaded efforts across our nation and in other countries to help broaden the scope of educational offerings, especially as it relates to science, technology, engineering and math, and

WHEREAS: Dr. Boyd's tireless commitment to community service, serving on the boards of local, national and international organizations has earned her dozens of awards and honors but above all, has allowed her to make a real difference in the lives of countless individuals in our country and around the world, and

WHEREAS: it is an honor for the City of Fayetteville to host Dr. Boyd and to welcome her to our City,

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim Saturday, October 24, 2015 as in Fayetteville, Arkansas and encourage all our citizens to welcome Dr. Boyd and offer her the full hospitality of our City.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 24th day of October, 2015.
