

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

WHEREAS: FEST of ALL: Celebrating the Many Cultures in the Ozarks began in 2011; this year marks its fifth year and FEST of ALL will continue in the future as an annual festival in Fayetteville, providing a unique opportunity to experience a variety of nationalities and cultures represented by our residents in Northwest Arkansas, and

WHEREAS: coinciding with First Thursday, FEST of ALL is free to the public – adding a community service element in highlighting a variety of cultural and ethnic groups through entertainment, education and artistic expression of several cultures, both familiar and those less frequently celebrated here, and

WHEREAS: FEST of ALL is a unique opportunity to experience traditional dance and song from a variety of cultures and encourages the appreciation and recognition of community diversity through artistic performances, vendors and artists presenting their unique work, and various community organizations providing information, and

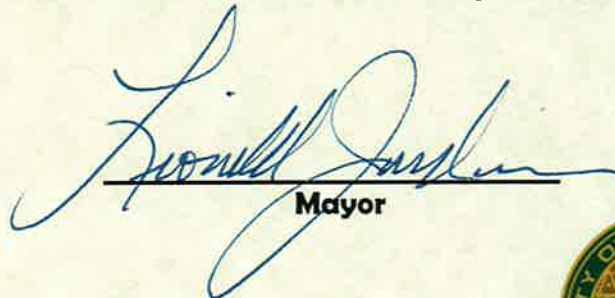

WHEREAS: this event is organized by the City of Fayetteville Community Resources Division. It is sponsored by the City of Fayetteville, the University of Arkansas Global Campus, Arvest and the Walton Arts Center. The City of Fayetteville thanks all of these entities and all of the many volunteers who make this festival possible,

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim September 3, 2015 as in Fayetteville, Arkansas and encourage everyone to join in this day of celebrating diversity and rededicating ourselves to cultural awareness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 3rd day of September, 2015.
