

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

WHEREAS: the peaceful transfer of power is a foundational principle of our democratic system, but so too is the right to peacefully assemble and let our voices be heard in the face of injustice, and

WHEREAS: by marching in Fayetteville, we are making it clear that we are resolved to continue fighting for fairness, equality, and decency, and

WHEREAS: we believe that love is love, regardless of gender identity or sexual orientation, and

WHEREAS: whether your family settled in Fayetteville three hundred years ago or three days ago – you are welcome here, and

WHEREAS: this march recognizes that standing in defense of the marginalized is standing in the defense of all of us, and

WHEREAS: civil rights are a birthright of this nation, and every person of every race, gender, color, or creed deserves equal access to justice.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim January 20, 2018 as in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

“Women’s March Day”

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 20th day of January, 2018.

Mayor

Attest:

City Clerk

