

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

- WHEREAS: homelessness is an issue that can affect anyone. Women and families represent the fastest growing segment of the homeless population, and
- WHEREAS: access to healthcare for homeless women is a challenge but an important issue that needs to be addressed, and
- WHEREAS: homeless women are at higher risk of injury and illness and are less likely to obtain needed health care than women who are not homeless, and
- WHEREAS: it is essential to undertake efforts to prevent homelessness, to expand community-based services for the homeless, and to provide adequate health care for this underserved population, and
- WHEREAS: homeless women's health remains a priority for communities and government and our commitment to keeping homeless women healthy is stronger than ever, and
- WHEREAS: in Fayetteville, Arkansas all women deserve to live with dignity regardless of their social or economic status.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim Sunday, February 18, 2018 as

"Homeless Women's Health & Welfare Awareness Day"

in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 18th day of February, 2018.

Mayor

Attest:

City Clerk

