

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

WHEREAS: the first "Walk A Mile In My Shoes" march was organized to raise awareness about the cost of housing in Fayetteville and advocate for individuals experiencing homelessness, and

WHEREAS: the City of Fayetteville recognize that homelessness continues to be a serious problem for many individuals and families, and

WHEREAS: the City of Fayetteville and its citizens are committed to making homelessness a rare, brief, and one-time event and ensuring that affordable housing options should be accessible to all Fayetteville residents, and

WHEREAS: there are many individuals committed to sheltering and providing supportive services to the homeless, and

WHEREAS: the intent of Homeless Awareness Day is to shed light on the positive efforts of individuals and organizations in our community that are working to assist people with housing, food, employment and self-sufficiency.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim Sunday, April 8, 2018 as in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

"Homeless Awareness Day"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 8th day of April, 2018.
