

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

WHEREAS: the University of Arkansas is committed to promoting an enhanced culture and climate of inclusivity and diversity and awareness of the value that an inclusive and diverse environment adds to the learning experiences and outcomes of students and to the mission, values and priorities of the university.

WHEREAS: engaging students, staff, faculty and the community, the Office for Diversity & Inclusion exists to develop and lead strategic efforts that enhance our campus and community culture and climate toward inclusivity and diversity.

WHEREAS: the Office for Diversity & Inclusion acknowledges the importance of representation, integration and the fundamentals of inclusivity, diversity, equity, access and civility and their importance in all that we collectively and individually say and do.

WHEREAS: the Kickoff Celebration of Inclusion and Diversity in Arkansas will include a variety of events starting in September to kick off the University of Arkansas campaign "Celebrating Inclusion and Diversity in Arkansas."

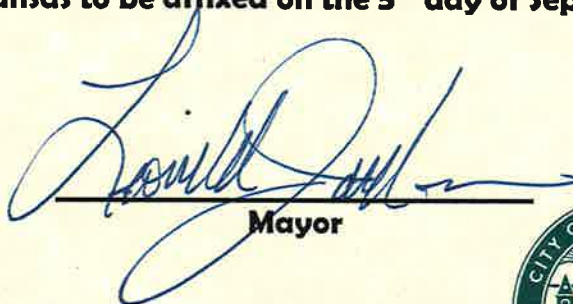

WHEREAS: the celebration is being organized by the Office for Diversity and Inclusion, the Office of Equal Opportunity and Compliance, the Office for Faculty Development, the Title IX Office and Vice Chancellor for Diversity and Inclusion, Yvette Murphy-Erby and with contributions from U of A faculty, staff and students.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim September 5, 2018 as

"Celebrating Diversity and Inclusion in Arkansas Day" in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 5th day of September, 2018.
