

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Stacy Harper is the daughter of Larry and Barbara Harper and sister of Lakisha Bradley, and
- WHEREAS: she is originally from Lewisville, Arkansas and moved to Fayetteville in 2013 from Upper Marlboro, MD, and
- WHEREAS: she is the mother of her 12 year old daughter Trinity Tummings, who won the Walmart "I have a Dream" speech for Fayetteville earlier this year, and
- WHEREAS: she is the founder and CEO of her nonprofit Light House Solutions where their mantra is "See a Need. Fill a Need" and through her nonprofit she has provided many community engagement activities across the Maryland, Virginia, Arkansas, and Georgia areas, and
- WHEREAS: Stacy's love and passion for her community (especially youth) exudes in every collaboration, partnership, one-on-one interaction she makes, and
- WHEREAS: she has recently partnered up with NWA SecondHelping. Their focus is to provide a one stop shop for resources, social and emotional healing for the community that will help drive job/career economic stability and mental wellness for our community, and
- WHEREAS: she is a lighthouse in our community. A resident of South Fayetteville and a lover of unity through her poetry, and
- WHEREAS: Stacy is currently battling breast cancer which she discovered a few days after her 40th birthday. However, it is not deterring her from her goal and dream to serve her community. She is stronger and wiser than before while continuing to make a difference one individual at a time.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim December 20, 2020 as in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

"Stacy Harper Day"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 20th day of December, 2020.

Mayor

Attest:

City Clerk

