

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Officer Stephen Paul Carr began working for the Fayetteville Police Department on April 24, 2017 and was killed in the line of duty on December 7, 2019, and
- WHEREAS: Officer Carr, badge number 413, served the citizens of Fayetteville with loyalty, dedication, and courage for two and a half years, and
- WHEREAS: he was born in Spring, Texas on September 12, 1992. He grew up in Woodlands, TX with his sister Kristin, dad Paul, and mom Tonya. After High School, Stephen attended college at Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, Missouri where he played football and earned a Bachelor of Science in Economics and Finance, and
- WHEREAS: he moved to Fayetteville after accepting a job at Sam's Club and be closer to his girlfriend, Madi. However in 2017, he decided to change career paths and follow in his father's footsteps and fulfill his lifelong dream to become a police officer, and
- WHEREAS: he applied to become a Fayetteville Police Officer in 2017 and began his career at the Fayetteville Police Department on April 24, 2017. After attending the Arkansas Law Enforcement Training Academy in Camden, Arkansas and completing field training with the Fayetteville Police Department, Officer Carr began on his own December 2017, and
- WHEREAS: Officer Carr, Badge 413, served his community and fellow officers with pride, bravery, and dedication. May he rest peacefully knowing that he is greatly loved and will never be forgotten.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim April 13, 2023 as

"Officer Stephen Carr #413 Day" in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 13th day of April, 2023.

Mayor

Attest:

City Clerk Treasurer

