

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

WHEREAS: the MakerGirl program inspires young girls to be active in STEM - Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics - and recognizes the critically important role STEM fields play in our future, and

WHEREAS: MakerGirl creates hands-on opportunities for young girls to explore what a STEM education means and what it can provide for them and encourages them to embrace the reality that STEM careers are equally important and possible for girls, and

WHEREAS: MakerGirl provides university women in the STEM fields the opportunity to serve as role models for young girls, helping them grow to be our strong leaders of tomorrow, and

WHEREAS: MakerGirl and the City of Fayetteville believe that the young girls of today, when provided with the opportunity and information, can become the force that moves the world toward gender equality and diversity in STEM educational fields, and

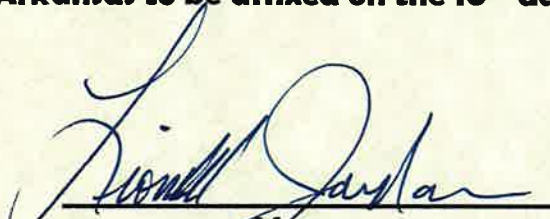

WHEREAS: a MakerGirl is a force to be reckoned with and we in Fayetteville are proud to know these girls will grow up recognizing that what once seemed to be "impossible" challenges can now be made possible,

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim Friday, June 10, 2016 as

"MAKERGIRL DAY"

in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 10th day of June, 2016.

Mayor

Attest:
